SLEEPY OLD CARSON, WILL SHE EVER AWAKE?

Poor, old, sleepy Carson City is to be pitied. She is worse than a Rip Van Winkle, and will probably not awaken until she discovers that she has given away something that she cannot again regain. Down at the state capital a trustee named Hurley is desirous of submitting to the voters of the city the question of the Truckee River General Electric company franchise. But that wily political wheeler, A. B. Gray, who serves as mayor, thinks it is not necessary to hold an election and it begins to look like there was a "nicker" in the "woodpile" somewhere.

Some day sleepy old Carson will wake up from its lethargy. It may be five or six years hence, but Carson is a growing town and the awakening may come sooner. But it will probably be too late, if the franchise now asked by the Truckee Electric company is granted. The people are dragging their feet down Carson way and are not only wearing out the soles of their shoes, but they are doing great damage to their concrete walks by the dragging manner in which they presume to walk.

ONE IMPARTIAL JUDGE IS FOUND IN NEVADA

There is one judge in this state that believes in honest enforcement of the dry statutes according to the laws of the land, and is impartial in his decisions touching upon the prohibition law. He is impartial and fair in his rulings and does not allow prejudice to overcome his honest convictions. This was evidenced in a case tried a few days ago, the defendant being discharged. The following from the Ely Record is well worth reading, which goes to show that a man's home is his castle and is free from search and seizure, and that the law provides a legal method of investigating said premises, and not merely upon information and belief.

"A decision was rendered by Judge McFadden yesterday in regard to search warrants that will prove of particular interest to all parties who are engaged in the illicit distillation of moonshine. The case was brought in the district court by V. H. Vargas, attorney for Jim Demmis, who was recently arrested by Sheriff Nicholson upon a charge of manufacturing moonshine. Demmis was bound over in the justice court for his appearance in the district court. Counsel Vargas presented a petition for the return of the property taken by the sheriff at the time of the raid on his place at Ruth, contending that the search warrant was not properly drawn. Judge McFadden in ordering the return of the property of the plaintiff stated that the laws granted the right of every man to be secure in his home from unlawful search and seizure of property, and that the law provided a legal form for search warrants which must be complied with. The judge ruled that a search warrant must provide more evidence than merely 'knowledge, information and belief,' and should define and state the articles to be searched for seizure and after seizure should be accompanied by an affidavit.

"Case dismissed and bondsmen released from liability and all property seized is to be returned and suppressed as evidence against defendant."

We are quite willing to have all wrong severely punished, provided we are the judge of right and wrong.

Help yourself by helping others who are willing to help you.

HON. PETER BUOL IS CANDIDATE FOR SENATOR

Hon. Peter Buol of Clark county, has come out in the open and announced his intention to contest for the nomination as candidate for United States senator, subject to the will of the republican voters at the primary election to be held in September. In a letter received by the editor of the Bonanza from Mr. Buol, which was written on "Confidential Limited" stationery, the writer stated that he had been called east unexpectedly, but that he would pay a visit to Nye county within the next month to meet with the republicans and discuss his candidacy for the office to which he aspires.

Mr. Buol is well known throughout Nevada and especially the southern part of the state, and will no doubt prove a formidable candidate. He is a tried and true republican and has always proved a willing worker in behalf of the party of his choice, as well as having always been liberal in espousing the cause of Republicanism. He feels that this is a republican year, and being a staunch supporter and admirer of President Warren G. Harding, he believes in the great principles that are being enunciated by the chief executive. Therefore, if elected, he can prove an ideal working associate of Tasker L. Oddie, who will become the senior senator from Nevada on March 4, 1923.

Peter Buol is an empire builder and has done untold good in the placing of Clark county on the map. He has been a mining man and has been instrumental in developing the mineral resources of Lincoln county. He is not unknown in political circles and has served Clark county as a member of the state senate with distinction and credit. He is a business man in the truest sense and is in a position to know the wants and needs of Nevada from almost every conceivable standpoint. "Let's put over a solid republican ticket this fall," concludes Mr. Buol in his letter, to which we say, "Amen," and we know that the mass of voters feel and agree likewise.

POLITICAL WRECKERS OF LABOR MOVEMENT

The announcement is made from Washington that elements representing 30,000,000 people have combined in a movement through which it is proposed to control American politics. Certain so-called leaders of farm and labor organizations have assembled at Chicago and Washington and without asking the consent of the governed have assumed to pledge the farmers and workmen to a program fashioned by this limited coterie of politicians.

When the self appointed leadership of this movement, branded as "non partisan," is examined, it is found that it is entirely composed of democrats and socialists. No republican has a look-in on this "non partisan" movement. The truth is that the purpose is to promote the interests of the socialist wing of the democratic party; the wing that is pledged to government ownership and as much of state socialism in general as it believes it will be possible to force upon the country.

Significantly enough it is announced that the campaign of this "non partisan" organization will be focused in 13 states. Of these 13 states, 12 are republican states, and in the 13th state, Oklahoma, the democratic state machine needs help because the leaders of the party, from the governor of the commonwealth on down, are involved in a scandal which makes republican success in the state election next fall exceedingly probable.

The people of this country have a right to look with suspicion upon any "non partisan" movement controlled entirely by Wilson-McAdoo socialists and near-socialists. As a matter of fact this organization which has undertaken to "deliver" the labor and farmer vote wherever it is believed the interests of the socialist wing of the democratic party will be best served, is about as non-partisan as Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, or Tom Heflin, of Alabama.

The government explains that the bird on the new peace dollar is an eagle. We are hankering to make its acquaintance.

Never threaten to lick the fellow who calls you had names. Do it instead.

GREAT TRIUMPH

Had there been no conference called for the discussion of naval armaments, or worse still, had the conference failed of agreement, we should have continued a race for control of the sea, with the expenditures increasing as steadily and rapidly as did military expenditures in the European rivalry which culminated in the great war.

Had the conference failed of agreement upon the limitation of armaments, it must have failed of agreement upon the other anxious questions of Far Eastern policy; for Japan, expectant of war, would not have released its hold upon Shanghai, upon Chinese railroads, upon Siberia.

Had the conference failed, England would be in military and naval alliance with Japan, a constant threat to America.

Had the conference failed we should inevitably have had war with Japan.

The peace of Washington is the triumph of diplomacy become sane at last, the triumph of common sense, the triumph of democracy making its determination felt upon government.

We are too close to it to realize its full purport. There is promise, however, that this peace will stand as the mark of a new epoch in world history, for what it accomplishes and for the example it gives the world.

BIG SHIPMENT IS MADE FROM HUDSON MINE

Leasers Three Hundred Level
Send Fifty Tons Good Ore
to the Belmont Mill.

A shipment of 60 tons of ore was made last Friday from the Tabarica & Tolo lease on the Hudson property at Royston, the product being consigned to the Belmont mill in Tonopah. This ore came from the 300 level, a short distance to the south of the shaft, and while a portion shows assays of better than 1700 ounces silver, the impression prevails that it will mill anywhere between $100 and $200 a ton by reason of a large quantity of low grade ore being mixed in with the shipment.

No settlement will probably be received for a few days, but returns of better than $5000 for the consignment will probably be received. The ore carried liberally of native silver.

No work is being performed at the Hudson shaft at present, or since the lift of 100 feet was completed from the 320 level of the incline workings. Some differences have arisen, but it is expected that a satisfactory adjustment of these matters will be made in the course of a few days.
